Every student must be an active member of a group.

3-5 students

Self-Organised Learning Environments

Students have the power to create their own learning.
Students may pick their own groups and can change groups at any time.

Self-Organised Learning Environments

Students have the power to create their own learning.
GROUPS

Students may walk around to see what other groups are doing and take these ideas to their own groups.

Self-Organised Learning Environments

Students have the power to create their own learning.

SOLE

A. Albini 2014 CVPS
Each group can access one networked computer.

Self-Organised Learning Environments

Students have the power to create their own learning.
Each group can access any resource required.

minus the teacher

Self-Organised Learning Environments

Students have the power to create their own learning.
Every student is expected to present the information.

Self-Organised Learning Environments
Students have the power to create their own learning.
Every student is required to give constructive feedback.

Self-Organised Learning Environments

Students have the power to create their own learning.